

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, AUGUST 25, 1882.

NO. 50.

LEXINGTON fair next week.

TOM ZUMALT suicided in Scott county.

Our new depot will be ready for use next week.

CAPT. GRAHAM, from Sumpter, S. C., in town.

The electric light poles are now being erected in Lexington.

At 10:30 we have no news from the Hazel Green convention.

As we go to press at 10:30, the doctors report Charlie Higgins dying.

BILLY DOUGLAS, of Cynthiana, will clerk at the Emery Hotel, Cincinnati.

GEO. DORSEY and Arch Stout are keeping bar for Sam Watson, of Cynthiana, this week.

It rained in torrents at the Cynthiana Fair yesterday, and the track was a perfect sluice.

The blowing of whistles by boys on the street is a great nuisance and should be suppressed.

EIGHTEEN railroaders were slightly poisoned in Lexington, by drinking doctored buttermilk.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church paid Nippert $125 for the privilege of giving fair ground dinners this year.

AN Ironton, Ohio, base-ball club defeated the Georgetown club on their own grounds Tuesday, in a score of 10 to 4.

PETER STONER got shot in the breast and severely wounded near Sharpsburg, by his son Ernest carelessly handling a pistol.

SOMEBODY always gets full of "bug," plays smart and quits business at Cynthiana during the fair. "Bug" and bullets will tell.

AN extra train will run from Mt. Sterling to Millersburg Sunday, to attend the State Convention of the Christian Church col'd.

J. H. LEER sold on Monday to Jas. Monroe Leer, of Bourbon, a fine jack colt for $250, and a jennet and jack colt for $150.—[Midway Clipper.]

The ladies of the Christian Church will give a supper on Thursday and Friday nights of the fair, at the Ficklin building, for benefit of their church.

A match game between the Louisville and Lexington clubs will be played at the College grounds in Lexington on Friday afternoon, August 25th, at 4 o'clock.

The first street car that arrived at Lexington Tuesday, had twelve tramps in it. It is thought that they will all apply for conductors' positions on the street railway.

THERE were 782 vehicles and 296 horses with riders, passed over the Blue Licks bridge Saturday, besides there were mile of horses and vehicles hitched on this side.

DICK RULE, of Shawhan, will take a car load of horses to Montana, some time in September, for Capt. Moore. The freight on the same will be $800 from Cincinnati.

At Cynthiana trotting races yesterday, Alice Stoner won in three straight heats, with Bonnet second. Time, 2:37. In the running race, Taxgather defeated Snowbox easily.

At Kidd's stock sales yesterday at Lexington, Imported Southdown sheep sold at prices ranging from $30 as $112, and others as low as $10. The sale continues to-day and to-morrow.

MAJOR TOM MANNEN, ex-Representative of Mason county, died at the Lexington Insane Asylum Sunday, and his remains were buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, of Cincinnati.

If the man who sells the small nuisance whistle will bring his stock to the News office, he will find a market for his entire stock, and will also be the recipient of some good advice free gratis.

The members of the Christian Church at Lawrenceburg are acting heathens over an organ. One party bought an organ and placed it in the church, and the other party stole it out and locked it up in jail.

YESTERDAY at Cynthiana, a young man named Kern, from Buena Vista, Harrison county, shot at a man, and city marshal Jack West attempted to arrest him. Kern resisted and commenced shooting, and West shot in self defense and killed him. During the shooting a young girl named Kennedy, a native of Cynthiana, got grazed across the forehead, and the express agent came near getting shot.

J. W. Wade, of Wade's Mills, Clark county, was at the Bourbon House with a new bride and corps of attendants, yesterday.

We stop our calamity mill just one moment to inquire when on the bosom of this velvety sward, will Lee Price come down town again?

The railroad commissioners to settle the damages for right of way through this county, paid Miss Georgia King $3,125 for about nine acres, and H. C. Parvin, guardian for Neal Lary's heirs, $190.

DURING the celebration at the Blue Lick Springs last Saturday, Hon. Thompson Parks had a pocket book stolen that contained about $85. Squire Sharpe, who lives near Headquarters, lost $26 in the same way.

ALEX. KELLER is the happiest man at Shawhan. He is now the proud papa of a daughter. Alex always had a passion for kissing girl babies regardless of age or size. It is said that he kisses this new one all of 500 times a day.

TOM KERNE passed through here yesterday from Owensville, where he has been trying to arrange for starting a paper. He did not succeed in buying the Outlook office, and will probably not start a paper at that point.

SAM STOCKWELL and Sam Berry, of Flemingsburg, had a little shooting scrape one night last week. Berry got shot twice—once in the right side and once in the thigh, with a 32 caliber. The affair has been kept very quiet, but it is hard for men who shoot to suppress the news.

MRS. S. J. TURNER has bought the stock of millinery goods of Mrs. Norris presided over by Miss Sophia Huthinson. She has engaged the services of Miss Fallon, as trimmer, and Mrs. James Short, Jr., as chief manager. Mrs. Short is an old hand in the millinery business, and under her management, the establishment will succeed.

JUDGE TURNER and his aid de camp, Col. Thos. Brown, welded the hearts of a colored couple like twisting together two great cakes of dough, at the court-house yesterday. Col. Brown made twenty-five cents out of the blissful occasion. Those who heard his pathetic prayer say that it was cheap at that price.

A hill gallowt at the Cynthiana Fair got to feeling good over his pop-skull Tuesday, and cussed an imaginary character called "Old Roper." He opened up several times, and each time grew louder. The last seen of him two policemen were dragging him along like a dead dog, and he was yelling loud enough to be heard a mile, "G-d d-n old Roper!"

BOB OWEN, of North Middletown precinct, offers for sale privately, his farm of 250 acres of finely improved land. This is one of the finest wheat and tobacco farms in the state. No year has the wheat grown on it fallen under an average of 20 bushels to the acre, and has once reached 42. This is a rare opportunity for purchasing one of the best farms in the State.

LEE PRICE borrowed a diamond and a valise, and had things about ready to be off for New York, on the next train, to buy the dress goods for L. Frank, but the telegram that purported to come from Mr. Frank was bogus. This is indeed a world of sad disappointments, and they are just as apt to drop down on a dress goods man who knows-all-about-the-business as anyone else.

DIED—On Wednesday night, at the residence of W. H. Thomas, Joseph Keller, a bachelor, aged 64. Mr. Keller had enjoyed his usual health up to July 18th, his birthday, when he rode on horseback up to Keller Thomas' track to see some horses trot, and in alighting on a fence, a rail broke and severely scratched one leg, which afterwards became inflamed and swollen very much, and ultimately produced his death.

Here's one of Bill Nye's bills of fare for consumptives out in Wyoming:

Iron Rust Soup.
Fish Plate a la Railroad Track.
Roast Wrought-Iron Dog.
Gas Pipe Larded.
Pyrites of Iron with Burglar-Proof Dressing.
Shingle-Nail Salad with Gate Hinges.
Sheet-Iron Pie.
Alumina Pudding.
Galvanized Cake with Safety Nets.
Oil Tempered Salt Lake Peaches.
Bessimer Steel Nuts.
Relishes—Tincture of Iron, Oxide of Iron, Iron.

GEN'L NUCKOLS having placed to the credit of the military fund on August 16th, another installment of the war claim amounting to $36,301.81, now desires to place the State Guard on a first-class footing all over the State. The General says that he specially desires a company at this place, and promises State aid of $8 per man toward paying for the uniforms. Why cannot Bourbon fall into line and turn out a first-class company of 40 or 50 chivalric young men?

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Kentuckians are swarming at White Sulphur.

Maysville police are doing duty at the Cynthiana Fair.

Niagara hackmen are civil this year; their business is light.

Lots of drug-store blondes were visible at the Cynthiana Fair.

Pink cambric dresses trimmed with lace are very fashionable.

Old maids are neglected opportunities that men seldom embrace.

Floods and cascades of oriental lace are worn on every dressy toilet.

Senator James Beck attended the burial of Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia.

One-half of the world don't know what the other half takes in their lemonade. Once in a minute, twice in a moment, but not once thousand years—the letter "m."

Berry Bedford, of Mansfield, Ills., paid a short visit to his old Bourbon home last week.

The meteoric shower is over, but lovers will continue to study astronomy as usual.

Alexander Stephens says that he knew Garfield well. He was not a good whist player.

General Beauregard is writing at Allegheny Spring on the book of his campaigns.

Frank Carr says that there were 1,600 persons at the White Sulphur Springs, Sunday.

A public sale of old bachelors will take place at the Lexington Fair. Phil Kidd, auctioneer.

A bogus Oscar Wilde delivered a lecture to a good audience at West Point, Miss., last week.

Baby won a race at Saratoga Monday. Alas, in how many homes does Baby win the race every day.

A New York band furnished the music for the ball given by the Richmond Social Club fair week.

A wise and good man does nothing for appearance, but everything for the sake of having acted well.

At the Cynthiana Fair, the band played "In de mawrin' by de bright light," and "dam golden slippers."

A pretty little miss at the Cynthiana Fair wore a wine colored satin dress shirred all over. It was beautiful.

Mrs. Long, of this city, has been engaged by Mrs. Fannie Talbot, as art teacher in her at school at Sharpsburg.

Papa, what is the matter with Hannah? Why, my dear, he came to see your sister Anna, with a view of tuning her piano.

The balloon ascension at the Cynthiana Fair Wednesday was a decided success. The balloon lit on the McGee hill near the grounds.

It is said that Miss Lulu Soper, of Georgetown, who is now visiting at Blue Lick Springs, will soon wed a Colorado millionaire.

"Suffer little children to come unto me," said the Lord. "Little children, come unto me and suffer," says the schoolmaster.

We heard a dry man say that the beer sold at the Cynthiana Fair consisted of three inches of airy nothingness and one of solid comfort.

An aesthetic lady of Flemingsburg, who has a large quantity of sunflowers growing in her garden, has painted the stalks of all them a bright red.

Gen. Buford and Rev. Green Clay Smith are going to kill off all of Buford's subscription list, by a discussion of Church and Turf, in Buford's Turf. Fishing-pole and Religious paper.

While a party of Lyon-county girls were kicking at a mark on the side of a barn one of them fell back and busted her 'Josie' and broke an arm. The boy in the barn enjoyed the sport with big-eyed surprise.

Two young girls in New York have distinguished themselves recently, one by rescuing a drowning child and the other by capturing a burglar. If the latter likes her captive pretty well after a few weeks acquaintance, she may possibly capture him again.

An odd feature in dress at the Cynthiana Fair was a brown cotton Mother Hubbard with the waist ruffled across the middle of the back. The hat was a recent arrangement bound with the cheapest lace. Both hat and dress including trimmings, cost about sixty cents.

Near the village of Kirkmansville, in Todd county, there lives a man who has twice learned to walk, twice learned to talk, is blind in one eye, is deaf in one ear, is married to his aunt, which makes him cousin to his children, uncle to his brothers and sisters and cousins, brother-in-law to his father and mother.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

ALEX. MCCLINTOCK, of Millersburg, has twenty Southdown rams for sale.

The celebrated horse Alexander, was on exhibition at the Cynthiana Fair.

Farmers are cutting hemp in Woodford. The crop is light and the acreage small.

The Nelson County Record has bunch of ten ears of corn, that grew from one shoot.

The Misses Baird made 1,400 bushels of wheat, near Adairville, on ninety-seven acres of ground.

An Edmonson county farmer took 675 pounds of honey from ten colonies of bees this season.

In Garrard county last week 10,000 bushels of wheat changed hands at one sale. Price ninety cents.

L. R. Huffman, of this county, took four premiums on hogs at the Cynthiana fair. The premiums amounted to $24.

It has been clearly demonstrated by practical farmers in Hardin county that sheep-raising pays 100 per cent annually.

W. H. Settles, of North Middletown precinct, threshed 462 bushels of wheat from nine acres—an average of 51½ bushels to the acre.

A Warren county farmer says the corn crop of that county will fall far short of an average yield. A large proportion of it will not yield five barrels to the acre, although planted on the best ground.

Garrett Mann, of near Millersburg, wants to feed down 16 acres of green corn to hogs. The field is well watered, and is on the Nimrod Wood farm, three miles north of town.

The officers of the Bourbon County Agricultural Association have adopted a resolution prohibiting betting and gaming of all kinds on their grounds, and will positively enforce it.

A horse book with 65 illustrations, and recipes for treatment of all diseases—the best book published on the horse, given away to every cash subscriber to the News.

Burt Scully, who has charge of a stable of the finest horses in Bourbon, at the old Ogden place, gave a "Burgoo" to his many friends Wednesday. About thirty of the boys were present.

Bowen & Co., sold their celebrated two-years-old horse "Barnes," to Dwyer Bro's, of New York, for $12,000 cash. They paid $200 for the dam of Barnes four years ago, and have sold $24,000 worth of produce from her.

Carralton Democrat: Be ye not deceived; a man can make more money on ten acres of tobacco land in Kentucky, with a $200 outfit, than he can in the West, on 200 acres of land with a $2,000 outfit. But when a man gets the Western fever nothing does him any good except a prairie freeze and a mess or two of grasshoppers.

Butterfly, property of Simmons, of Lexington, won the trot over Tip Bruce's Sanford in fine style at Cynthiana Wednesday. Sanford quit ingloriously, after winning two heats. The running race was won by Zoolite, property of T. J. Megibben, over Shawhan's Saunter and Nichols' Barometer. Distance, 1½ mile dash; Time, 2:03.

Lumps beat Post Boy at the Cynthiana Fair, in 2:23. The knowing horse men all got badly left. On the return train home the Versailles boys who backed Post Boy heavily, consoled themselves by sadly and sweetly singing "The Sweet Bye and Bye," and several other favorite hymns, greatly to the enjoyment of a congregation of ladies and gentlemen who wouldn't throw in a nickle when the hat was passed.

Ben Mills, the first prisoner of the war, was captured at Harpers' Ferry by John Brown, is making guns at Harrodsburg.

TO THE PEOPLE.

As a Piano and Organ builder of nineteen years' experience, I offer my services to the residents of Bourbon and surrounding counties. I guarantee strict factory work, and will make this part of Kentucky my permanent home, if you will appreciate my labors among you, by keeping me at work.

I cheerfully refer you to Professors Gutzeit and Sanders, and a host of other friends of this city—made by good work.

Respectfully,
JULIAN OSTENDORFF.

Notice.
